

COMING SOON!

HOT TOPICS IN PEDIATRIC DGBI

VIRTUAL SYMPOSIUM

FOR DISORDERS OF GUT BRAIN INTERACTION

NOVEMBER 11, 2023, 8:00 AM EST

EARN UP TO 4 CME CREDITS*

Case-based learning to highlight advances and controversies in the field.

Faculty Speakers:

Mark Benninga, MD
Professor of Paediatric Gastroenterology
Head of the Department of Paediatric Gastroenterology & Nutrition, Academic Medical Centre in Amsterdam

Carlos Di Lorenzo, MD
Professor of Clinical Pediatrics at Ohio State University and Chief of the Division of Pediatric Gastroenterology at Nationwide Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH

Jose Garza, MD
Medical Director Neurogastroenterology and Motility at GI Care for Kids / Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, Georgia, United States

Kirsten Jones RD, CSP, LD
Clinical Dietitian, Department of Clinical Nutrition & Lactation, Nationwide Children's Hospital

Julie Khlevner, MD
Associate Professor of Pediatrics at Columbia University Medical Center Director, Gastrointestinal Motility Center, New York Presbyterian Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital

Katja Karento, MD
Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Director of Pediatric GI Motility and Cyclic Vomiting Syndrome, Medical College of Wisconsin, USA

Sam Nurko, MD, MPH
Professor of Pediatrics Harvard Medical School Center for Motility and Functional Bowel Disorders, Boston Children's Hospital Boston, Massachusetts, USA

Rachel Rosen, MD
Associate Professor of Pediatrics at Harvard Medical School Director of the Aerodigestive Center at Boston Children's Hospital

Miguel Saps, MD
Chief of Division Pediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology & Nutrition, Director of Pediatric Neurogastroenterology & Motility at Holtz Children's Hospital of Miami, Florida, USA

Julie Snyder, PsyD
Assistant Professor of Psychology, Harvard Medical School Director, GI psychology service, Boston Children's Hospital

Registration Fees:

$150 for MD, PhD, PsyD
$100 for NP, PA
$85 for Students and Trainees

Scan QR code to learn more and register, or visit <https://cme.theromefoundation.org/>

Learning Objectives:

- 🔥 Learners will hear a review of the evidence-based recommendations for the evaluation and management of children with DGBI using a case-based approach
- 🔥 Learners will learn about new & emerging DGBI diagnosis
- 🔥 Learners will feel more confident in handling medical issues that might be considered controversial
 - Test or not Test: Endoscopy, Imaging, Breath Testing, Impedance, Motility Testing
 - Dietary management: Chasing the Z score, Enteral Tubes, Specialized Diets
 - Therapies: Behavioral / neuromodulators / neurostimulation / alternative
 - Too Many Cooks in the Kitchen: The Role of the Gastroenterologist in Overlapping Pain Conditions and other diseases (MALS, MCAS, SFN, EDS, POTS, etc)
- 🔥 Learners will get a full biopsychosocial approach to management from a multidisciplinary panel

Agenda:

8:00 - 8:05 AM: Introduction

Samuel Nurko MD MPH

8:05 - 9:20 AM: Esophageal Disorders

Jose Garza, MD, Rachel Rosen, MD MPH, Julie Snyder, PsyD, Kristen Jones, RD, CSP, LD

Moderator: Carlo DiLorenzo, MD

9:20 - 10:35 AM: Dyspepsia/nausea/vomiting/ARFID

Katja Karento MD, Marc Benninga MD PhD, Julie Snyder PsyD, Kristen Jones RD, CSP, LD

Moderator: Rachel Rosen MD MPH

10:35 - 10:45 AM: Break

10:45 AM - NOON: Abdominal pain disorders /overlapping pain

Julie Khlevner MD, Miguel Saps MD, Julie Snyder PsyD, Kristen Jones RD, CSP, LD

Moderator: Samuel Nurko MD MPH

12 - 12:15 PM: Closure

For questions about this CME program, contact Tamiela Blair at tblair@theromefoundation.org

CME Credits: Up to 4 CME credits* available of continuing education credit for for all health care providers who treat infants, children and adolescents with Disorders of Gut Brain Interaction. Attendees must complete the associated evaluation form in order to receive credit.